"There is No Room For Indifference" in U. S. Says Jones

Secretary of Commerce is Speaker at Luncheon of AP in New York

New York, April 21—(AP)—Secretary of Commerce Jesse H. Jones declared today that although defense activity is better than good, there is no room for American complacency.

There is no place for indifference, Jones said in a speech prepared for delivery at the annual luncheon of The Associated Press at the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria.

The secretary coupled a report of progress in defense over the past year with two warnings:

If the aggressor nations are successful, our generation is apt to see little of tranquility.

If we are to get ready to defend ourselves, let's be sure that we do a good job of it.

Dwelling momentarily on our lack of preparedness a year ago, he conceded it is not easy for a peace-loving people like ours to change overnight from purely peacetime pursuits to complete all-out effort at arming, even for defense.

"This is particularly true," he said, "because we have always had faith in the protection of the oceans, and have always believed that no power could invade us."

"Maybe we can't be invaded, but we might become isolated economically, and that would inevitably lead to war. Trade outlets are the cause of most wars."

Fortunate in Editors

"Fortunately," he said at another point, "most publishers and editors of American newspapers can be depended upon for a high order of integrity and patriotism. Fortunately, in America the people have the services of such agencies as The Associated Press, which strives to search out the news and report it impartially and completely."

"As for freedom of the press," Jones said, "we will never abandon the high ideal that the press should be free to seek out and to print the news and the truth, unless temporarily certain items having a military bearing might better go unpublished."

"If there ever should be censorship of the American press, it will be brought on by those short-sighted few who blindly and stubbornly refuse to recognize the responsibility that inevitably goes with freedom," Jones said. "But as a government official I am glad to be able to say that I have never seen any indication that anyone in government wanted to do any censoring, unless it be information which might aid those who are not America's friends."

Reynolds Believes Convoy Compromise May Gain Some Favor

Washington, April 21—(AP)—Senator Reynolds (D-NC) said today that the proposed compromise restriction on convoys would command more strength than a flat prohibition against the use of American naval vessels for escort purposes.

The compromise, suggested by Senator Nye (R-ND), would require the President to obtain congressional approval before ordering convoys. The resolution will be considered by the Senate foreign relations committee April 30 along with a strict ban on convoys offered by Senator Tolley (R-NH).

Informal administration polls indicated that at least 13 members of the group would vote to pigeonhole any anti-convoys legislation. Reynolds, a member of the foreign relations committee, said he would support both the Tolley and Nye resolutions.

Eighth Million Old Age Assistant Warrant Mailed by Lueder Today

Springfield, Ill., April 21—(AP)—State Auditor Arthur C. Lueder today mailed the eighth million old age assistant warrant to Leona Wilson, Chicago.

Since the first warrant was issued on May 12, 1936, a total of $190,090,911.50 has been disbursed by the state to those 65 years of age or over.

Lueder pointed out that the first million warrants lasted a little over 13 months, while the last million were used up in almost half that time, which gives a graphic illustration of the extent to which the old age rolls have increased.

Young Yugoslavia King Flees to Jerusalem

Vichy, France, April 21—(AP)—Dispatches reaching Vichy today from Beirut, Lebanon, said that a plane carrying 17-year-old King Peter II of Yugoslavia had reached Jerusalem in a flight over the Mediterranean during which an unidentified member of the Yugoslav cabinet was killed.

The plane was attacked in flight, it was said.

Arrest Ex-Convict for Rape-Death of Indiana Girl, 12

Terre Haute, Ind., April 21—(AP)—A few hours after the battered and unclothed body of 12-year-old Edith Idella Barton was found today in Sugar Creek in West Terre Haute, an ex-convict, arrested on a road near Paris, Ill., admitted having attacked the girl, Detective Chief Thomas Welsh announced.

Chief Welsh said the man, whom he identified as Cozzie Merrill Jones, 24, former inmate of the state reformatory, denied, however, that he killed the child. He insisted that she fell into the stream and drowned accidentally.

Jones was taken to state police headquarters at Indianapolis for a lie detector test after being questioned here.

Police said Jones' father, the Rev. C. M. Jones, a Pentecost church pastor, notified them that his son returned home last midnight, told of attacking the girl and then fled on foot after throwing the keys to his automobile on the front porch.

Clothing Found In Room
Welsh said the father told police he pleaded with his son to surrender but the young man replied, "Hell no, this will mean either the hot seat or the blue hole for me."

The expression, "the blue hole," apparently referred to solitary confinement. The girl's mother, Mrs. Mack Rogers, said Edith stayed yesterday afternoon with Jones' invalid sister while he and other members of the family were away from home, then attended a church service last night, returning home about 9:30 p. m.

Mrs. Rogers said she fell asleep and when she awakened the back door was open and her daughter missing. The girl's clothing was found in her bedroom.

Edith was 12 years old yesterday.

Wright Aeronautical Corporation Steps Up Its Defense Efforts

New York, April 21—(The Special News Service)—Wright Aeronautical Corp. is "putting on the heat" in its defense effort.

Every 25 minutes a Wright cyclone or whirlwind airplane engine rolls off the assembly line, ready for a place in a military bomber or fighter.

Output aggregates "more than 1,000" engines a month.

Within a year that rate will be more than doubled.

Engineers at Camp Forrest Getting Experience in Building of Bridges

Camp Forrest, Tenn., April 21—(AP)—Picturesque Tullahoma Lake, nestled between a naked hill on one side and a heavily-wooded slope on the other, today became the army's laboratory for teaching soldiers how to assemble heavy pontoon bridges capable of supporting the movement of heavy mechanized troops.

Like many other tools of warfare, the pontoon bridge has advanced far from the cumbersome wooden spans that were floated in previous years.

The huge aluminum pontoon, though weighing 1,450 pounds, is far lighter than anything developed before and is durable enough to be transformed quickly into a speedy troop transport barge.

Forest Fires in 8 Eastern States Leave Black Ruins

Two Known Fatalities as Flames Destroy Wooded Lands

BULLETIN

Lakewood, N. J., April 21—(AP)—A four-tongued forest fire raged more than 20 miles through parched pineland today, reaching the outskirts of Lakehurst and the U. S. naval air station where thousands battled to halt its advance.

After begrimed fire fighters in central and south Jersey had succeeded in subduing most of the 47 blazes throughout the state, a fire which started in the Cassville area and burned away more than 6,000 acres of the Fort Dix army reservation veered suddenly on Lakehurst.

(By The Associated Press)

Thousands of woodland acres in eight eastern states were charred ruins today, aftermath of a devastating series of forest fires that consumed sun-dried countryside like cordwood.

Tiny sparks became raging flames under the double spur of brisk breezes and tinder-like trees, shrubs and grasses, and devoured hundreds of homes as well as forests and farms.

A fortnight of unseasonably warm, dry weather was blamed for the seriousness of several hundred individual blazes that felled dozens of firefighters and resulted in at least two deaths.

Hardest hit was central and southern New Jersey, where 68 homes were gutted and property damage was estimated up to $1,000,000. In Lakewood, a winter resort, 46 dwellings were razed by licking flames.

Two Known Fatalities
Vezvelon Glazoff, 52, died of a heart attack while trying to save his burning Lakewood home. George Knight of Centralia, Va., either was burned to death or killed by a falling tree as he fought flames nearby.

Other states where blackened tree stumps marked the paths of fires were Massachusetts, Vermont, Pennsylvania, New York, Maryland and Virginia. In West

Officials Puzzled by General Motors and Coal Deadlock

(By The Associated Press)

What to do about a strike threat at plants of the General Motors Corporation and the contract deadlock which has halted soft-coal production were the two big defense labor problems which beset official Washington today.

Governor Murray D. Van Wageningen of Michigan arranged to talk over the General Motors situation with President Roosevelt during the day. The C. I. O. United Automobile Workers served a five-day strike notice last week against the giant corporation. The union wants a union shop and higher wages.

Steel circles already were beginning to feel the pinch of a coal shortage which resulted when C. I. O.'s United Mine Workers of America failed to reach a contract agreement with southern mine operators. Northern operators agreed to a $1 a day raise, but the southerners balked at the demand that they also pay $7 a day, eliminating a 40-cents-a-day differential in their favor.

An appeal by Secretary Perkins Saturday for resumption of work tomorrow met no favor with any of the interested parties.

The United Mine Workers replied that they were willing to resume negotiations with the southern operators in New York. The southerners insisted that they had withdrawn definitely from the Appalachian wage conference which included northern operators, but reiterated willingness to negotiate separately. They reopened last night an offer to open the mines with an 11 per cent wage increase.

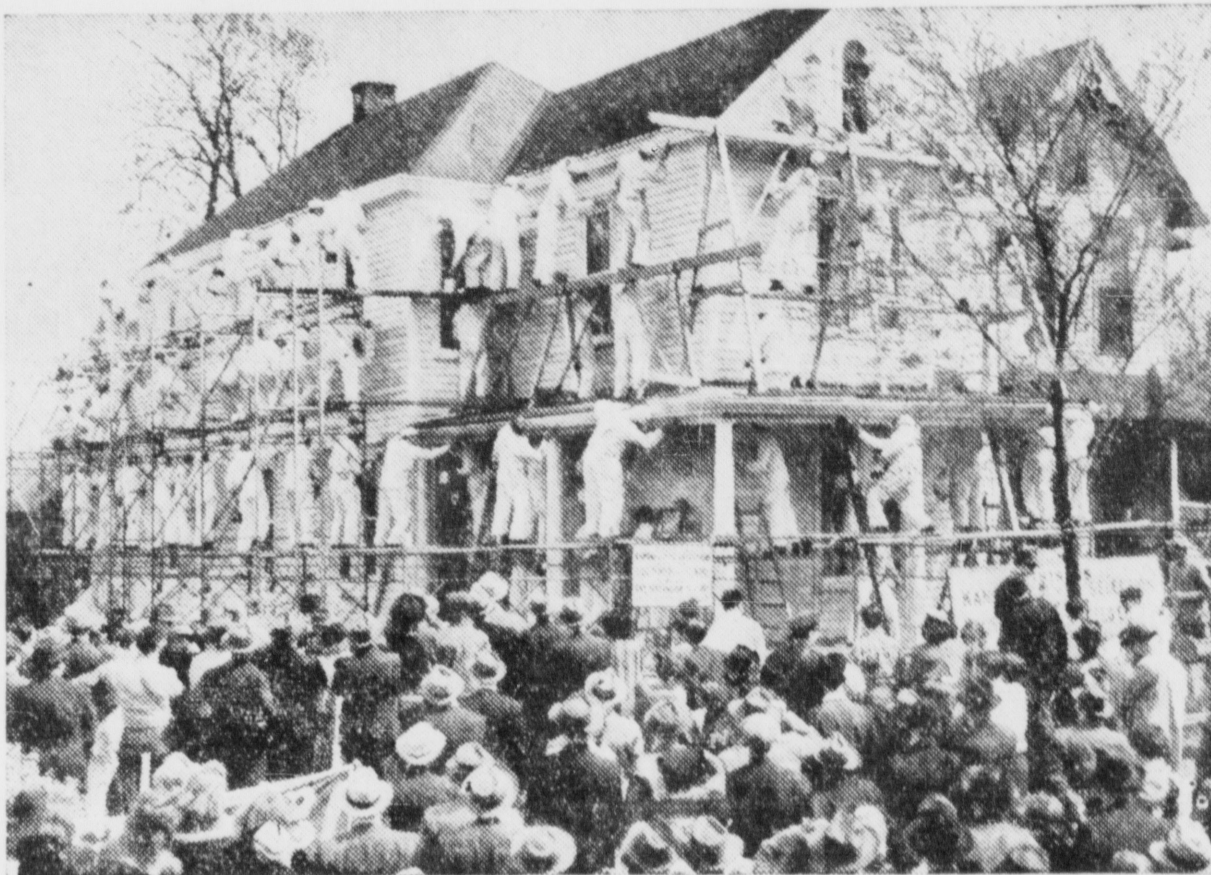

A prominent Italian-American who once was associated with Al Capone, D'Andrea is part owner of L'Italia, a foreign language newspaper published in competition with Arena's La Tribuna.

A few minutes after he walked into the station he was ushered into the office of Capt. Patrick O'Connell to make a statement.

When the 43-year-old Arena was killed it was believed an editorial war between the newspapers might have been involved. But this theory has been abandoned, police said, in favor of one that Arena was shot because of his interest in some woman.

"Union Dictators" Hit by Rep. Cox of Georgia in Address

Washington, April 21—(AP)—Declaring that private ownership in this country "stands at the mercy of government bureaucrats and unionist dictators", Rep. Cox (D-Ga.) urged congress today to "strike the shackles which have been forced upon the nation's defensive industry."

In a lengthy speech in the house, the Georgian contended that administration - sponsored labor legislation was part of a threat to "American institutions". He did not mention any law by name.

"We must insist," he said, "upon the free and untrammelled operation of private management and private ownership, of the freedom of contract, the freedom of enterprise, and individual independence. x x x x"

"Labor Must Understand"
"Labor must realize that private industry must profit if it is to survive; that it cannot pay wages except if profit; that it cannot absorb the waste of strikes and idleness and sabotage, and continue to increase wages and decrease hours."

"Labor must understand that when industry suffers, the entire nation suffers."
Cox added that the United States was threatened from without by fascism and from within by both communism and fascism. For some years, he continued, "bureaucratic dreamers" have been promoting in this nation "an insidious revolution" of "planned economy" and "collectivism."

Pekin Man Dies in Winning Wager of $2

Peoria, Ill., April 21—(AP)—Lyle Hyneman of East Peoria won a friendly $2 bet but he had the harrowing experience of watching the man with whom he made the wage die in an attempt to win.

When Carl Leslie Stallings, 30, of Pekin, offered to bet $2 that he could swim the Illinois river near Creve Coeur Saturday, Hyneman accepted the wager.

Hyneman stood on the river bank and watched Stallings plunge into the stream. About half-way across the river, Stallings sank.

Hyneman was among those who aided in the search for Stallings' body.

Man Sought in Death Of Chicago Editor Surrenders Today

Chicago, April 21—(AP)—Philip D'Andrea, sought for questioning since John F. Arena was shot to death on a north side street corner last Tuesday night, surrendered at the town hall police station today.

A prominent Italian-American who once was associated with Al Capone, D'Andrea is part owner of L'Italia, a foreign language newspaper published in competition with Arena's La Tribuna.

A few minutes after he walked into the station he was ushered into the office of Capt. Patrick O'Connell to make a statement.

Hillman Professes Satisfaction With Labor's Situation

Washington, April 21—(AP)—Sidney Hillman, associate director of the Office of Production Management, told the special senate committee investigating the defense program today that strikes "are becoming less rather than more numerous."

Hillman said that defense strikes were becoming shorter in their duration and at present, outside of the coal industry, there are "only about 15,000 workers on strike in the whole range of national defense". Two weeks ago he had said that only 8,000 defense workers were on strike.

He said the small number of strikes "may be regarded as remarkable, for it is a well-established fact that increases in industrial activity are regularly marked by increases in work stoppages through industrial disputes."

Hillman testified that "if it becomes necessary," he would favor the government taking over and operating defense plants in which production had been stopped by strikes.

No New Laws Needed
At the same time, however, he told the committee that he did not think such action necessary now and that no other legislation was needed to deal with strikes.

He urged, instead, that government efforts to obtain "cooperation" between labor and management be continued.

He cautioned that the government should be authorized to take over a strike-bound defense plant only "in an emergency" and "if there is no other way".

He said he believed "we are going into an era of even greater collaboration between management and labor. We have got today a spirit of full cooperation."

The defense program, he said, has resulted in the employment of more than 2,000,000 industrial workers.

He outlined the efforts of the OPM to inaugurate in-plant training for defense workers and said that "the United States is building a greater asset of skill than ever before and is doing it by the cooperation of all groups."

Report Nazi Columns Less Than 150 Miles from Grecian Capital

The War Today!

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE

As a demonstration that the pen may be mightier than the sword, it's fair to say that the Hitlerian big-stick diplomacy now being brought to bear on Turkey is considerably more dangerous to the allied cause than is the nazi advance into Greece.

The fuhrer, looking forward to a quick killing in Greece, is said to be trying to maneuver the Turks into a position where they will grant him passage of troops into the Near East, should he desire to make that the scene of his next conquest. He has no desire to fight his way through the ferocious Bashi-Bazouks of Asiatic Turkey.

As has been said in this column before, conquering the Balkan peninsula won't win the war for the Hitlerites, but breaking through into the Near East would be more productive. The Iraq oil, plus a chance to assault the Suez canal and Egypt from the east would be big pumpkins.

You know the old Serbian saying—if you allow the devil to sow pumpkins, he will hit you on the head with them later. Thus the nazi progress with Turkey is a matter of vast importance to Britain and her allies.

There is no reason to believe that the Turks are panicky over the German success in Yugoslavia and Greece, because they expected it, although not with quite so much speed. However, Turkey is vitally concerned over anything which challenges Britain's control of the eastern Mediterranean.

This being so, without doubt the Turks are watching the axis drive along the Libyan coast into western Egypt with anxiety. This thrust hasn't created any desperate situation as yet, and the British profess to be confident of dealing with it at the opportune moment. Still, it is a grave menace potentially and so long as it exists the Turks are bound to regard it as a warning to them to treat cautiously in challenging the Germans.

Thus far the Turks have presented a stiff neck to Hitler, and frequently have reiterated their intention to abide by their alliance with Britain. However, the British probably will be smart if they make a special effort to liquidate the Libyan position as soon as possible.

Actually, of course, the desperate hot weather and the period of sand-storms have set in over the desert, rendering military campaigns difficult. Making war under a sun which produces a soil temperature of 175 degrees Fahrenheit isn't easy, and the sand-

Chicago Police Get Familiar Order Again: It's "Arrest Danny Stanton"

Chicago, April 21. — (AP) — There was a familiar order on the desks of the city's district police captains today: "Arrest Danny Stanton."

This time the police wanted to learn from the one-time associate of Al Capone what he knew, if anything, about the shotgun slaying of James (Cy) Ryan, 38, who was killed early yesterday as he sat in the front room of his south-west side home reading a newspaper. The gun was fired through a window.

Police Captain Hugh McCarthy, who broadcast the alarm for Stanton, said that Ryan, an ex-convict, was associated with a group selling horse race news to gamblers.

Stanton, about 40 years old, was linked with the Capone mob in prohibition days and, during that period as well as in later years, was seized many times on various charges.

Police said he still is associated in southside gambling enterprises.

Ryan, who officers said had been hiding for the past three months, was shot and wounded last July as he and a companion, John McLeod, were leaving a grocery store. Bullets from the revolver of the masked gunman killed McLeod.

Allies Acknowledge Falling Back to New Positions

BULLETIN

New York, April 21—(AP)—The Italian radio, in a broadcast heard today by N. B. C. said "it is believed that German forces have already reached the port of Volos, an important and strategic communication center."

Volos is an east coast port about 30 miles south of Larisa.

By The Associated Press

Adolf Hitler's rampaging panzer columns were reported less than 150 miles from Athens today, thrusting south along the 60-mile-wide plain of Thessaly in central Greece, as the allies acknowledged they have fallen back again to a new, shorter defense line.

Apparently the next major stand by the British and Greeks was to be made in the southern mountain barriers guarding the approach to Athens between the Gulf of Corinth and the Aegean port of Larisa.

British middle east headquarters said the British withdrawal was "in conformity with the movement of the Greek army fighting on their left."

Australian and New Zealand troops executed "brilliant" rear-guard actions which inflicted a heavy toll on the Germans, the British communicate said.

Meanwhile, a Havas (French news agency) dispatch from Sofia said the Bulgarian army started this morning to occupy sections of northern Greece and fallen Yugoslavia.

Greek King Makes Plea
Greece's King George II called on his troops to fight "to the very end" amid allied reserves which saw the Germans break through northern mountain defenses on the Mt. Olympus-Ioannina front, reportedly capture Larisa and Trikala, and storm down the flat plain of Thessaly toward historic Thermopylae.

Trikkala is a control point of the railway through central Greece from Salonika to Volos, on the Aegean.

With Hitler himself directing the blitz from a railway car somewhere in the Balkans, the German high command asserted that nazi mechanized forces were driving south "far beyond Larisa" in pursuit of retreating British and Greek troops.

A Greek communicate, however, declared that the new allied line was holding doggedly under violent assault, and that nowhere had the Germans knifed through.

"Other German forces advancing across the Pindus mountains to the west took a mile-high pass near Metsovon, 40 miles northwest of Trikkala," the nazi high command said.

Italian press dispatches said "a big battle to wipe out the Greek army" was raging at Perati bridge, which spans the Viossa river at the Greek-Albanian frontier.

Report Bridge Destroyed
Italian dive-bombers were said to have destroyed the bridge, trapping the Greeks on the Albanian side; but the Greeks declared that they had stemmed fascist attacks in the west.

The Germans asserted that British troops were retreating toward harbors in southern Greece, and nazi dispatches from the front again spoke of "a second Dunkerque"—a reference to the British-French withdrawal from the Battle of Flanders last summer.

Stefani, the official Italian news agency, declared publicly that the Greek army was losing "four-fifths of its permanent forces and all the war material supplied by Britain."

The news agency said that the Greek route of retreat, on the road from Ioannina to Arta, 35 miles south, was littered with the wreckage of hundreds of motor vehicles . . . and that "entire encampments have been thrown into confusion, masses of troops scattered, and supply services destroyed."

On North African Front

On the north African front, Premier Mussolini's high command reported that Italian and German troops halted a British attempt to land reinforcements near Bardia, Libya, 10 miles from the Egyptian border, and that they had captured all British soldiers who "succeeded in setting foot ashore."

This was an apparent attempt by the British to reinforce their columns battling to stem the axis drive across Egypt toward the Suez canal.

British military sources described the withdrawal on the eastern flank as orderly, maintaining an unbroken front; but the Germans said the Greek campaign was entering its final phase with fighting developing into a hot chase of the British and Greeks south of

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Doctrine of Atonement" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 20.

The Golden Text was, "All things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation" (II Corinthians 5:18).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: And they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more" (Jeremiah 31:31, 34).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "If Truth is overcoming error in your daily walk and conversation, you can finally say, 'I have fought a good fight . . . I have kept the faith,' because you are a better man. This is having our part in the at-onement with Truth and Love" (p. 21).

ONE SOUR NOTE . . . but it's a great orchestra nevertheless

Even a great orchestra will make a musical mistake once in a while. And once in a while . . . out of the thousands of decent, law-abiding beer retailers in Illinois . . . you'll come across one or two who operate disreputable establishments.

These "black sheep" retailers constitute a tiny minority. Yet they tend to drag down the good name of beer.

By arousing public indignation, such undesirable retailers endanger your right to enjoy good beer. They also endanger the benefits to the public that beer has made possible.

For example, in Illinois beer has created 73,769 new jobs with an annual payroll of $67,820,548 and paid $2,922,136.00 in taxes last year.

The brewing industry wants "black sheep" retailers eliminated entirely. You can help us by patronizing only the reputable, legal places where beer is sold. And by reporting irregularities to the duly constituted law enforcement authorities.

Laura Anna Engels and Mr. Pakenham Wed in Mendota

Pink and white carnations and ferns screened the altar of St. Peter's and Paul's church at Mendota on Saturday morning for the 9 o'clock wedding of Miss Laura Anna Engels, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Engels, Sr. of Mendota, and Edward F. Pakenham, son of the senior Edward Pakenhams of Earlville. The Rev. Lawrence Schumacher, pastor of the Peterstown church heard the vows.

The bride walked with her brother, who gave her in marriage. Her princess gown of velvety satin was designed with a long train, trimmed with seed pearls. Her three-quarter length veil extended in six points, banded with lace, and was held in place with a tiara of seed pearls and orange blossoms. Her only jewelry was a gold cross, and she carried her mother's bridal handkerchief. White roses, sweet peas, and forget-me-nots formed her bouquet. Her pearl rosary was the bridegroom's gift.

Miss Catherine Pakenham, the bridegroom's sister, was bridesmaid. She selected shell pink accessories for her light blue taffeta gown. Her blusher veil was held in place by a tiara of blue and pink flowers, and she carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

The Misses Rita Marie and Jane Cecelia Henkel were their aunt's junior attendants. They were dressed alike in floor-length frocks of shell pink embossed taffeta with light blue trim. Each wore a bandeau of sweet peas and carried arm bouquets of sweet peas.

Leo Engels, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Arthur Engels, brother of the bride, and Justin Pakenham, the bridegroom's brother.

Mrs. Engels and Mrs. Pakenham, mothers of the bridal pair, were attired in blue, with corsages of pink roses.

A four-course wedding dinner was served at Oringer's tea room in La Salle. A decorated cake ornamented the bridal table.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SAID:

"Excessive partiality for one foreign nation and excessive dislike of another cause those whom they actuate to see danger only on one side, and serve to veil and even second the arts of influence on the other. Real patriots who may resist the intrigues of the favorite are liable to become suspected and odious, while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people to surrender their interests." From the Farewell Address.

Importance of Matruh

As British forces from East Africa rush to the defense of the Suez Canal, target of a Nazi-fascist spearhead advancing ominously from Libya, dispatches indicate that General Sir Archibald Wavell, commander of the Army of the Nile, is preparing to make a supreme stand against the axis column at fortified Matruh, tiny Egyptian port on the Mediterranean coast, about 200 miles west of Alexandria. It was from this town, known to the ancient Romans as Paratonium, that General Wavell launched his spectacular drive into Italian Libya last December, a drive which was to carry the British as far as El Agheila, southwest of Benghazi, within two months. There the British halted, and there, on March 25, was begun an Italo-German counter-thrust that has swept eastward with startling velocity into Egypt itself. Not until yesterday did this drive show signs of slowing up.

A superior axis column has forced the British to withdraw successively from Benghazi, Derna and Bardia, but Salum and Tobruk at latest reports were still holding out. The invaders have swerved around the port of Tobruk in their march toward the key prize of Port Said, Mediterranean end of the Suez Canal. It would be logical for General Wavell to use Matruh as a main base because that town had been turned into a defense fortress to resist the original Italian push into Egypt last fall. It is the western end of a railroad to Alexandria and thence to Cairo and Port Said. A motor road parallels the railroad. During the first World War Egypt's western headquarters were at Matruh. The town has only a few hundred inhabitants. The terrain is well suited to defense purposes. Approach from the west is by coastal highway from Salum, but the availability to the British of railway connections with Alexandria presumably will facilitate preparations to cover this approach by means of artillery and other heavy equipment.

To the south of Matruh is the formidable Libyan Desert, a part of the Great Sahara. The hot sands are most unfavorable for tank warfare of the type that has kept the Germans on the move up to now. According to the National Geographic Society, the town is surrounded by low sand hills, beyond which is an undulating plain of limestone that stretches to the barren Libyan Plateau. The successful defense of Matruh, and of the vital points to the east, will depend, of course, on the strength of the force which General Wavell is able to muster within the short space of time available. Obscure Matruh, therefore, may be destined to go down in the history books as something more than the trading post it has been for centuries.

After the War—What?

Regardless of whether the United States goes full-tilt into the European war the thing is bound to end some day.

As far as can be seen right now the war will be won either by the allies or by Germany or it will fizzle out in general anarchy. Other endings are possible but one of the three mentioned seems most likely to the experts who have fooled us so often already. (What would be do without these experts?)

The experts tell us that if Germany wins the war Hitler will put his cheap labor to work and flood the world with export commodities produced more cheaply than we can produce them. If that happens we would have to resort to a lower standard of living in order to compete in world markets with Hitler's cheap labor. All that of course in addition to the fear that Hitler might decide to make a military invasion of this country.

Now if the European countries opposing Hitler win the war, led by England, Hitler and Hitler's cheap labor will be out of the export picture as a major factor. But the cheap labor of France and England still will compete with us for world markets. Let us not make the mistake of figuring there will be no scramble for markets, no matter who wins for the fight will be carried on vigorously.

It goes without saying that none of the winning countries, when the anti-Hitler forces have won, will be able to pay its war debts. They didn't pay their debts from the last war and the damage has been greater in many respects in this one. They might be able to make Germany pay some reparations but if they assess Germany they will be compelled to admit Germany to the export markets. You can't make a man pay his debts as long as he is in debtors' prison if he is bankrupt. And that is Hitler's condition.

Meanwhile in this country we have a desperate drive by labor and every one else for a higher standard of living and we are piling up debts that will have to be paid in part by exports.

Regardless of what happens to prices, the cost of living remains the same with some people—all they make.

Thinking you know is never quite as important as knowing you think.

Happiness is a state of mind your own business.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc. Reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

Washington, April 20.—Any one who wants credit for this coming one-third increase in taxes can have it.

Usually when more taxes become necessary, the President sends a message to congress or the treasury goes up to the hill with a fanfare. Not so this time.

Legislative tax leaders, Senator George and Representative Doughton started trying to see Mr. Roosevelt about it two weeks ago. Doughton kept telling the press each day he expected to see the President the next, but after 10 days the leaders were told to go to see Morgenthau. Doughton announced they would on Tuesday, but it was Thursday before they got in. And the invitation list was swelled to include Republicans, like Senator Vandenberg, who had never been inside the treasury since 1933.

The Republicans were fairly cute themselves. They kept insisting in the conference that the way this bad news should be broken to the people was to have Mr. Roosevelt go on the air in a fireside chat. Their support was necessary, so they not only got into a Democratic conference for one of the few times in new deal history, but they won their point.

This tone of compulsory friendliness will surround the passing of the bill and probably guarantee a straight revenue-raising law rather than further reform of the social order. There is little chance of a fight.

Even Senator Vandenberg conceded behind his hand the one-third increase would prevent inflation by monetary deficiencies. This still leaves open the prospect of economic inflation by price-wage spiraling, credits, etc., but these are not tax matters.

The bitter political business will however, be attended apparently by an extraordinary amount of deceptive low grade publicity, picturing how easy the boost is going to be for all. For an initial instance, the original news was accompanied by such stuff as "the increase will amount to only $26.50 for every man, woman and child in the United States," although no children, few women, and not nearly all men, pay taxes. The blow will actually fall ten times heavier on those who do.

This country is pictured as being further away from a declaration of war today than 60 days ago, in the private expressions of all the administration's congressional leaders. Their late advices from the White House have been designed to allay congressional fears of what FDR might do. The president has been portrayed as strongly determined to avoid involvement now. The result has been to keep congress quiet.

Although Navy Secretary Knox told congress the government ought not to take over a plant, he and War Secretary Stimson had a plan worked out to take over Alis-Chalmers two weeks ago.

Their plan did not get out but was presented to Mr. Roosevelt. It called for Knox to send an admiral into the plant, but for Stimson to summon a number of troops from a nearby Wisconsin camp. Mr. Roosevelt joshed Knox about the discrepancy in responsibility, asking in effect, "What's the matter with the navy that you let Stimson do the dirty work?"

Turning serious, the President thumbed down the plan, claiming it would only magnify the trouble to have the government undertake the responsibility for breaking the strike. He said he thought it better to have labor striking against management than against government.

COLD WIND HANDICAPS TRACK ATHLETES IN KANSAS RELAYS

Lawrence, Kas., April 21.—(AP)—Track coaching technique has advanced tremendously during the past century, but the mentors still have not found a way to make the runners hot on a cold day.

At the 19th annual University of Kansas Relays Saturday 20 of the 23 records withstood the assaults of Athletes handicapped by a cold wind.

One of the other three—the 100 yard established for the 100-yard dash by Cy Leland of Texas Christian in 1930—was equaled by Carlton Terry of Texas university. However, because Terry had the chilling breeze at his back the mark will not be recognized.

Archie Harris, football and track star at Indiana, outsmarted his rivals by wearing his sweat suit while competing and got off a 171 foot 6 1/2 inch dash throw that added 17 feet to the Kansas record and was only a yard short of the listed world mark.

Four of his teammates hurried through the sprint medley in 3:25.2 one-tenth second faster than the previous meet standard.

ABC TOURNEY WILL WINDUP EARLY IN MAY

St. Paul, April 21.—(AP)—Although the current American Bowling Congress tournament has only 16 days and nights left to run, it is expected in ABC circles that at least four of the existing highs will be bettered in the various divisions before the windup May 6.

Most likely to be topped are the 1,338 score in doubles rolled by Harry Ledene, Jr., and William Flesch of Chicago on April 12 and the 2,013 all-event total of Harry Kelly of South Bend, Ind., which has headed the division since March 29.

The other two marks which may not survive to win titles are the 740 total in singles by Ed Mady of Minneapolis, shot last Wednesday, and the 3,065 count of the Vogel Bros., of Forest Park, Ill., which has headed the five-man division since March 30.

Low scores among the Big Ten leaders on the board at this writing are Westinghouse AA, Pittsburgh, 2,963 five-man event; Hilla Kallas-Frank Carvella, Milwaukee, 1,289, doubles; Harry First, Moline, Ill., 704, singles and Charles Clark, Jr., Auburn, N. Y., 1,930, all-events.

There was no change among the Big Ten leaders yesterday.

An average of 577,000 employees worked in U. S. steel industries in the fourth quarter of 1940. Their payrolls were at the rate of $1,080,000,000 annually.

A number of large American cities have produced films depicting the various municipal departments and services and showing how the tax dollars are spent.

Since 1920 the number of home owners in the U. S. has increased by 3,500,000.

AROUND THE CRACKER BARREL

The early morning rains washed away the golfing hopes of the Plum Hollow club members yesterday and the grand opening was postponed until next Sunday. However, some of the members gathered around the cracker barrel to chew the fat and outline a program for the summer. Matches are planned with Mt. Morris, Sterling and Polo. Em Rorer will probably serve as sports chairman this season if he can get the rest of the family's O. K. Among those who were fat-chewers were J. Fred Hofmann, Oscar Witzleb, Clyde Yount, Frank Randall, Harold Rorer, Spud Ryan, Leo B. Miller, Darrel Reis, Em Rorer, Ken Lair and Danny Strub. The latter registered himself as "a portsideer from Vinegar Ridge."

LADIES' LEAGUE BOWLS TONIGHT

The ladies of the local bowling circuit continue their games tonight at the Dixon Recreation where the 12 teams have a double shift program. At 7 o'clock the Soda Grill meets Budweiser Gardens; Amboy Royal Blue vs. Dr. Bend; Rainbow Inn vs. Bon Ton; Frazier Roofing Company vs. Moose Ladies. At 9 o'clock the Lakeshire Marty quintet meets Ray Carson's service and the Buicks meet Kathryn Beard's team.

MEETS CUE MASTER HERE TONIGHT

Up and down the turnpike we hear that John Mensch is slated to meet Cue Wizard Art Rubin in that exhibition at John Valle's tonight at 7:30. Rubin, who hails from Brooklyn, N. Y., will show the boys some fancy and trick shots in billiards, pocket billiards and pool. In 1936 Rubin won the New York state title at 3-cushion billiards and has defended that title ever since. In 1939 he won the New York state title at pocket-billiards and in 1940 won the American and English snooker championship. During his stay here fans can get instructions on the Diamond system.

TENNIS MATCH TONIGHT

The Dixon tennis team has a pretty fair idea of what to expect at Rochelle in a postponed match set for tonight. Saturday morning the boys went to the Hub city and started to play before the rain interrupted a rather sad affair for the locals. Although the Dixon boys were being defeated, the opponents agreed to call it "no contest" and try again tonight.

POLO SOFTBALL LEAGUE TO MEET

President James Noakes of the Polo Softball league has called an important meeting for tonight at Naylor's market in Polo at 7:30 o'clock. Important league business will be discussed and the prexie has urged that all committees and sponsors or managers of teams be present.

KNACKS PRACTICE RAINED OUT

The season for baseball is starting true to form—and it looks like a crackerjack of a year. For years the Knacks have set opening practice dates and got all steamed up only to be cooled off by a cold change in the weather. Yesterday was no exception and another try out session has been set for next Sunday by Manager H. Emmert. Yesterday's battery saw Wind on the mound and Rain behind the plate and the score was a 0 to 0 shut out.

FIRST TRACK TEST TOMORROW

When Dixon's track team goes to Princeton tomorrow for its first dual meet of the season, the boys will be getting their acid test and from them on we may know more of what to expect from Coach A. C. Bowers' boys. In the lineups of events Vaughn, Hoffman and Egler are slated to compete in the high hurdles; Shank, Weidman and Heckman in the 100-yard dash; Van Meter, Ommen and Edwards in the 440-yard run; Weigle, Fane and Cramer in the mile.

SOFTBALL MEETING HERE TONIGHT

Dixon's softball league which has been thrashing around like an impatient fan anxious for the game to start, will hold another meeting tonight at The Telegraph offices for more discussion of the coming season. All team sponsors and managers are urged to attend and the time is 7:30 o'clock.

NO SOAP

Peter Phalen's boys of the Junior American Legion baseball team had intended to practice yesterday morning at Reynolds Field, but the drizzle made it a fizzle and they'll try again next Sunday.

SYNDICATE BUYS BOSTON TEAM

Boston, April 21—(AP)—For the second time in his half-century of baseball, Bob Quinn is heading a syndicate-owned club that he hopes will be a pennant-winner for his beloved Boston.

Last night that esteemed veteran, popularly known as "Honorable Bob," proudly announced that a dozen loyal friends had joined forces with him for the purchase of the 73 per cent controlling interest in the Boston National League club held for the past five years by C. F. Adams, wealthy Boston sportsman. Among them were Casey Stengel, the club's manager, and Francis Guimet, the former National Open and amateur golf champion, now a Boston broker.

Both Quinn and Adams refused to divulge financial terms of the deal that will be consummated as soon as a few minor legal and financial details have been settled, probably within a day or so. It is understood, however, that the Quinn group agreed to give $250,000 cash and a $100,000 note for control.

Other Stockholders

The owners of the club's remaining 27 per cent holdings, former Massachusetts Governor Frank G. Allen, ex-congressman Joseph F. O'Connell of Boston, and Leopold M. Goulston, the club's vice-president, will retain their interests, Quinn revealed.

The other members of the Quinn syndicate are Joseph F. Conway, Richard Hevessy, Joseph Maney, Daniel Marr, Louis Perini, Frank McCourt, all of Boston, Guidi Rugo of Milton, Dr. William Wrang of Middletown, Conn., J. W. Maxwell of Danvers, Conn., and Max Mayer of Brooklyn, an intimate friend of Manager Stengel.

In addition to proving the means for the purchase of Adams' stock, the group also will supply fresh working capital, Quinn exulted.

"It looks like a splendid setup and I am delighted to be associated with such substantial men who have such a keen love for baseball," Quinn said.

Quinn said his group planned to get organized today and he said it could be taken for granted that he would continue as president and Stengel as manager and that any changes in the club's personnel would be decidedly minor ones.

DIXON GOLF TEAM LOSES MATCH TO OREGON SATURDAY

Bill Witzleb Turns in Best Card for Locals in Drubbing Event

Dixon's high school golfers returning from Oregon Saturday sighed, "Well, live and learn." For about all they got out of the match with the Hawks was experience and the Lundholm men, fresh from a victory over Sterling earlier in the week, were drubbed 18½ to 2½ in the "tour" of the Sandy Hollow course.

Coach Arthur Driver's Oregon club-swingers had little trouble in routing the Dixon boys despite the absence of two of four hold-over letter men from the team which finished fifth in the 1940 state tournament at Peoria.

Best cards were turned in by Engstrom and Wachin of the winners, each with an 81. Bill Witzleb was Dixon's ace with an 84.

Michigan, Iowa Are Puzzles of Big Ten Baseball

Chicago, April 21—(AP)—Iowa and Michigan, question marks in the Big Ten baseball campaign, begin competition Friday, a week later than other contenders for the title now shared by Illinois and Northwestern.

The Hawkeyes, who split a Saturday doubleheader with Notre Dame, open the season at home against a strong Indiana nine while Michigan, having just completed a tour of Dixie, makes its league debut in a two-game series with Chicago at Ann Arbor.

League-leading Ohio State, double victor over Purdue last week, entertains Wisconsin. Northwestern plays Minnesota at Evanston and Purdue invades Illinois, thus giving the conference a full week-end schedule of 10 games.

Ohio State was impressive in whipping the Boiler-makers twice, capturing the Friday game, 3 to 2 in 11 innings and the second, 4 to 1. Indiana matched the Buckeyes pace by dumping Minnesota in two engagements, 5 to 1 and 10 to 9.

Illinois defeated Wisconsin, 5 to 0, Friday. The Saturday game was rained out. Northwestern likewise dumped Chicago, 4 to 0, only to lose a chance to the tie Ohio State for first place when the second contest was washed out.

Ace Pitchers

Don Dunker and Al Grant topped the week-end pitchers. Dunker set the Gophers down with three hits for Indiana's Friday decision and Grant yielded only five blows for the Illini decision over the Badgers. Johnny Saxer was stingy with hits, but his wildness kept Wisconsin in trouble throughout.

Joe DiMaggio, Joe Gordon and Buddy Rosar, Yankees—DiMaggio's three hits, including homer with three on, drove in six runs; Gordon's three, including two homers, drove in five; Rosar got four hits, three of them doubles—all in 19-5 rout of Athletics.

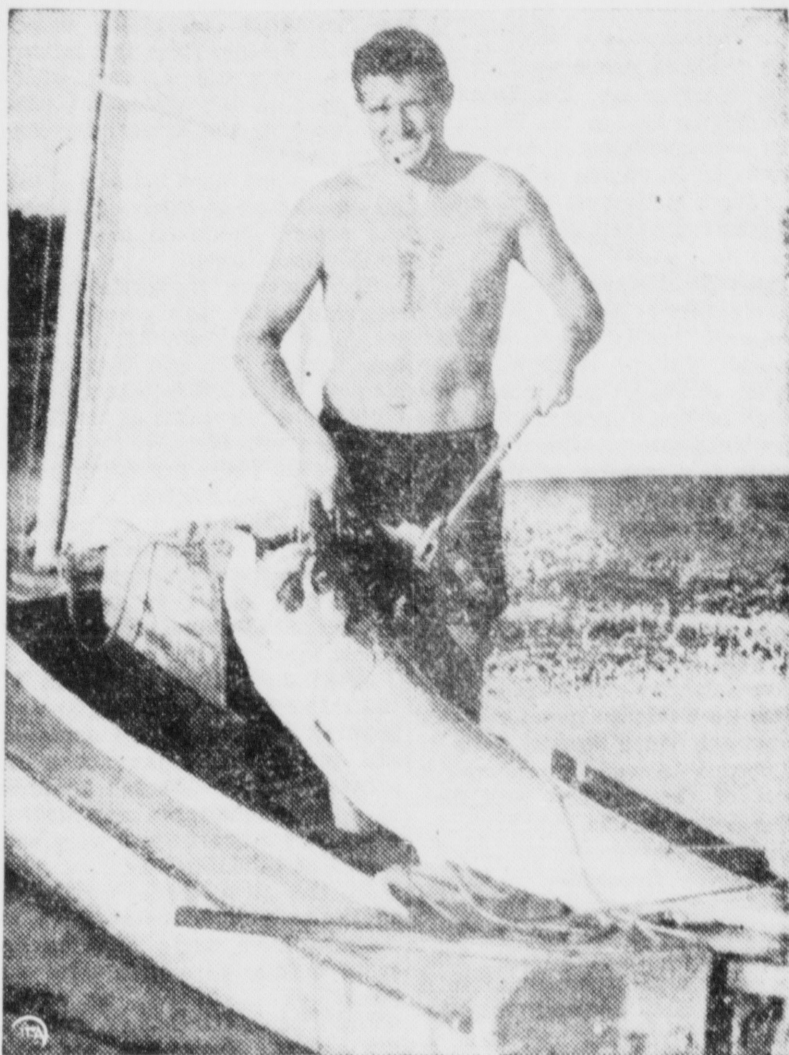

Mel Harder and Joe Heving, Indians—teamed for six-hit pitching job that tamed Tigers, 4-2.

Pete Reiser, Dodgers—Belted two doubles and two singles to pace 15-hit attack that nosed out Giants, 10-9.

Tarpon Tale Tops Fish Stories

Dick Czekalski's freight is a 5-foot, 60-pound tarpon.

Dick Czekalski had a reputation for veracity... up to now. But the manner in which Czekalski claims to have captured this 5-foot, 60-pound tarpon will probably get him branded as a teller of tall fish stories. The Georgetown junior says he beat the silver king over the head with an anchor, leaped on the monster, rode it under water like a horse, wrestled with it, and then threw it into his sailboat so he could drive to recover his anchor. The big one came to in the boat, broke a center rib of the craft as it lashed about with its tail.

Check Czekalski, home for spring vacation, testifies all this happened when a big school of tarpon ran right under his boat while he was sailing off Pass-a-Grille Beach, Fla.

First Week of Baseball in Major Loops Upset Pre-Season Estimates of Experts

By BILL BONI
Associated Press Sports Writer

This, marking the start of the second week of the major league baseball season, should by rights bring pause for reflection, a check-back on pre-season estimates and how they are holding up under the early firing.

In the light of yesterday's developments, however, this corner defies anyone to come up with a reasonable, logical analysis. This corner itself has not yet even come up for air, buried as it is under base hits and horrible statistics.

For those who insist on analysis, however, here is the situation: In the National League the New York Giants, who were not supposed to make the first division, are in first place, having lost their first game in six starts to Brooklyn yesterday, 10-9. The Cincinnati Reds, favored to repeat for the pennant, are next to last and attained that eminence only by winning their last two games, including a 7-3 job on the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday.

In the American League, barring the presence of the scorned Boston Red Sox in first place with a record of five wins and no losses, things are not quite so strange. After all the Cleveland Indians and the New York Yankees are figured to run one-two either way you name 'em, and at the moment they're running two-three.

Sunday Games

Enough of such trivia, however. Let us rather delve into the dark adventures which befell fourteen supposedly major league baseball teams on a Sunday afternoon (The St. Louis Browns and Chicago White Sox got off easy—it was so cold in Chicago they couldn't play).

In the National League there were four games. These produced, says the adding machine, 62 runs, 100 hits, 16 errors and 27 pitchers, or an average of 15 runs, 25 hits, four errors and seven pitchers per game. There were three games in the American league. These turned up 52 runs, 67 hits, 12 errors and 15 pitchers.

In both leagues there was only one pitcher able to go nine innings. He was the Yankees' Red Ruffing, who gave the Philadelphia Athletics 10 hits but got such stupendous support from his mates he could have pitched 'em underhand. This support took in three homers, two by Joe Gordon and one with the bases full by Joe DiMaggio; six straight hits and eight runs in the fifth, and a six-run ninth.

The score was 19-5, and the victim Chubby Dean, who had humbled the Yanks in their home opener but lived to regret it.

Best Pitching

The best pitching, however, was a two-man, six-hit job by Mel Harder and Joe Heving, who heaved the Indians to a 4-2 verdict over the Detroit Tigers. The other American League game was a mauling match which the Red Sox won from the Washington Senators, 14 to 8.

In the senior circuit, the Dodgers and Giants drew a record Polo Grounds crowd of 56,314, and every man got his money's worth, what with five homers, two by Mel Ott; nine pitchers, and the winning run scored from second

Rochelle Golf Team Ties With Sterling Squad

Sterling's golf team, which bowed to Dixon last week, wound up in a tie with Rochelle at the Hub city Saturday with a 7½ to 7½ knot. It was the first meet of the season for the hosts and the second for Sterling.

Rain halted one match which went only 15 holes and the two players, Keller of Sterling and Masters of Rochelle, were tied in strokes but the former won on points, 2½ to 2. Other scores were as follows:

	In	Out	Tot.	Pts.
Hubbard (S)	38	41	79	2
DeGrise (R)	40	40	81	1
Griesser (S)	40	40	80	3
Maxson (R)	43	43	86	0
Hayes (R)	44	46	90	3
Benson (S)	46	48	94	0
Grennan (R)	48	43	91	3
Cies (S)	50	44	94	0

Hubbard of Sterling turned in the best card of the day with a 79 for 18 holes while Griesser of Sterling and DeGrise of Rochelle each totaled good 80s. Hayes and Brennan of Rochelle are freshman players.

A triangular match is scheduled for Wednesday with Rochelle and Princeton at Sterling which may determine the superiority of one of the two teams which tied Saturday.

This Is "Last Chance" Week for Derby Hopes

New York, April 21—(AP)—This is "last chance" week for some of your very best Kentucky Derby hopes, and a lot of the winter-book "investors" are rooting for them like college sophomores "alma mammy."

In the Blue Grass Stakes at Keeneland Thursday and the Wood Memorial at Jamaica Saturday, several standout gallupers who haven't done any too well up to now will have to produce—or else they're not likely to get that ride to the Downs to hear "My Old Kentucky Home."

The Blue Grass will feature the first three-year old dual of those 1940 juvenile standouts, Whirlaway and Our Boots, but more important to the Derby picture is just what—if anything—such others as Valinda Groom, Blue Pair and Bushwhacker can do. The Wood ends the spring "Surprise Package," Robert Morris, against Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons' high-gear King Cole, but beyond that it's going to furnish proof of whether Dispose and Curious Coin, the Florida winter heroes, can come back to their southern form.

New Odds

As matters now stand, the future book operators added up a lot of potential profit off the turf's surprises of last Saturday and came up with a new callover of odds that didn't much resemble the previous prices. All alone at the top of the latest list was our boots, Roy Martin's Bull Dog colt, quoted at 3 to 1 as a result of the neat sprint victory with which he opened his three-year old campaign at Keeneland Saturday.

Hooked up at 4-1 were Charley (Lucky) Howard's Porter's Cap, convincing winner of the Chesapeake Saturday; King Cole, the handsome speedster who turned in a snappy 1:40 2-5 mile workout, and Whirlaway, Warren Wright's leading juvenile money winner of 1940, who is rapidly recovering his two-year-old form and should be "hot" for the Blue Grass.

Back of these were Dispose, the Flamingo winner, who was dropped to 6 to 1 off his run—of lack of it—in the experimental Saturday, in which he showed not a lick of speed and wound up last and J. Fred Ryers' Robert Morris, who pinned at 200-1 but is now backed all the way down to 10 as a result of his two fine performances this spring.

Dixon American Bowling Congress Team To Bowl in Local Tournament Tomorrow Night at 7

Molten lava spilling down the alleys of the Dixon Recreation couldn't have produced more steam when it hit the frosty ten pins than did the volcanic eruption in the bowling tournament here yesterday. A mound of new records buried previous scores under a mass of charcoal as new leaders displayed their talents.

In three divisions new records were established and only Halbmaier and Fallstrom were able to maintain their leading doubles score in the noisy fury here Saturday night and yesterday.

The G. M. C. truck team of Elgin spilled games of 1015-983-942 totalling 2940 to pass the high mark set Wednesday night by Jay Curran's Tavern five of Dixon. L. Reggelbrugge bowled the highest scratch series of the tournament for the Elgin team with games of 231-201-210 for 642.

High Team Game

The Wurlitzer team of DeKalb rolled the high team game of the tourney thus far with a second game count of 1131. Rich bowled 201, C. Larson 253 (which is the highest individual game to date), P. Kizis 225, G. Bjurston 213 and E. Pontilla 175. The team carried 64 pins per game handicap. This big game along with 919 and 876 enabled the DeKalb entry to soar to third place in team standings with 2926.

Hamm's Beer of Belvidere succeeded in nosing up into sixth place with team games of 996-908-962 for a 2866 series. L. Dearth led his team in shooting 596 crutch, the team carrying 54 pins per game handicap.

The Barclay Photo Supply team of Elgin, last year winners of the team event with 2868, shot a little short of that figure yesterday afternoon with 2833, good for seventh place. D. Barclay was in there pitching with 611 scratch, the team using a 61 handicap per game.

G. Myers Tops Singles

G. Myers of Leland, gave the remaining tournament entries a mark which will be plenty hard to touch in the singles when he mustered games of 210-222-159 with a handicap of 111 for 702. Just a few moments before, H. Gorman had gone into first place with 668, by collecting games of 212-191-226 carrying only 39 pins handicap. Gorman is from Princeton and now is in second place.

T. Stark of Elgin beat down the maples to the tune of 241-177-186 with 39 pins handicap for 643, good for third place in the standings.

Wayne Stewart of Dixon sailed right into fifth place with 638, on games of 171-174-215 with 78 handicap.

W. Hoeppner of Elgin with 636 and C. Larson of DeKalb with 631 moved into seventh and eighth place in the singles. R. Hoyle and J. Bubbick hold down ninth and tenth with 624 and 623, respectively.

New All Events Leader
C. Larson of DeKalb bowled consistently with series of 648 in the team event, 553 in the doubles and 631 in the singles for 1832 to take the lead in the all-events class. Larson's handicap is 51 pins per series.

G. Myers of Leland, the new singles leader, rolled 583-541 and 702 to take second in this class with 1826. Myers carries 111 pins per series.

W. Hoeppner of Elgin is third with 578-603-636 totalling 1817. L. Diessness of Dixon now is in fourth with 1799, on series of 608-553-638.

The doubles event is the only event in which the top scores were not threatened. New names appeared in the first ten, however, K. Fitchie and L. Stump of Elgin went into sixth place with 1178, H. Wormanland and I. Stahl of Leland rolled into seventh place with 1177. C. Keeker and L. Loechner of Elgin are right close behind with 1176, for eighth. C. Carlson and L. Reggelbrugge of Elgin are tied with Joe Miller and Frank Randall of Dixon with 1173 for the last position on the board, although there will be 22 prizes in this event and 47 in the singles. The team event will pay 10 places, starting at the top prize of $85.00, and dropping to $10.00 for last place.

Duke Visits British War Relief Group in Palm Beach Today

Palm Beach, Fla., April 21.—(AP)—The Duke of Windsor took time out from his preparation of a local radio address today to visit Palm Beach headquarters of a British war relief group and question workers about details of the organization.
The Duke's broadcast was described as a message of "sincere appreciation to the people of Palm Beach and America for the sympathy and material aid being extended to the British empire."
The talk was to be transcribed some time this afternoon for broadcasting over station WJNO of Palm Beach at 7:30 p. m. (6:30 p. m. C. S. T.) today.

Stimson Favors Giving British Red Cross U. S. Doctors in Emergency

Washington, April 21.—(AP)—Secretary Stimson said today he favored furnishing the British Red Cross with 1,000 young American doctors to meet a shortage.
President Roosevelt, disclosing yesterday that the British had asked for the medical men, suggested that doctors volunteer. He said he approved the British request heartily.
Said Stimson: "Naturally we must look to our own interests in the light of the emergency which faces the world today. We shall need several thousand more doctors in our own army. However, I feel that we should do all in our power to aid in obtaining these physicians, consistent with the needs of our own national defense. I can see no objections, therefore, to the fulfillment of this request through the machinery of the American Red Cross."

Washington, April 21.—(AP)—Chairman Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of the Republican National Committee disclosed today that he had decided to carry on in the party post without an executive director.

But Martin said today he believed he could handle the job with the present staff headed by Robinson McIlwaine of Pennsylvania, his assistant chairman.

Defense Program Helps Creation of New Jobs in State

Springfield, Ill., April 21.—(AP)—Industrial expansion spurred by an estimated one billion dollars worth of business from the national defense program created 27,300 new jobs in the state last year, according to the Illinois Development Council.

Even more new industries will be established in Illinois this year, the council predicted in a report to Governor Green.
The council reported that 62 new industrial plants with 17,300 employees were established in Illinois during 1940 and that expansion of 395 existing industries resulted in employment of 10,000 additional workers.

The 1940 plant expansion boosted payrolls $39,800,000.
"Up to the end of the first quarter of 1941, Illinois had probably received more than $1,000,000,000 worth of business as a result of the national defense program", the report said.

From July 1940 to March 21, 1941, the Chicago industrial area received $689,261,000 in contracts and orders, steel production increased $150,000,000 and additional defense contracts awarded to downstate Illinois firms were estimated at $100,000,000.

In the first three months of 1941, the council reported, 13 industries have made plans to operate in the state with total employees of 15,760 and an annual payroll of $23,500,000. A total of 142 existing plants have announced plans to expand their facilities to hire an additional 5,000 employees with an annual payroll of $7,000,000.

The council listed expenditures on army and navy fields in the state as follows:
Chanute field, Rantoul, $11,500,000; Scott field, Belleville, $9,000,000; Camp Grant, Rockford, $8,274,386; Savanna ordnance depot, $5,267,233; Great Lakes naval training station, $3,176,816; Fort Sheridan, $3,000,000; Rock Island arsenal, $2,561,941; Parks Air College, East St. Louis, $2,000,000.

Congressional Leaders Discuss Tax With FDR

Washington, April 21.—(AP)—Senate and house leaders met with President Roosevelt for two hours today and said afterward that a "general discussion of the legislative situation" had taken place.

Speaker Rayburn said there had been some discussion of the projected $3,500,000,000 tax program, but senate Majority Leader Barkley said there was no talk of what would be taxed.

Barkley said there was some incidental talk of the labor situation, but without reference to any particular phase. He said there had been, also, some mention of the prospects of an early settlement of soft-coal dispute with no one willing to predict when it would be obtained. Asked whether the president contemplated taking steps to send the shutdown in bituminous mines, Barkley asserted: "I would not say he contemplates any particular action."

Canadians Capture Three Escaped War Prisoners

Peninsula, Ont., April 21.—(AP)—Three escaped German prisoners of war were captured near this Canadian Pacific railway station house during the night and observers here said they believed that only six of the 28 men who broke from the Dominion's most isolated internment camp Friday night were still at large today.

Ottawa officials said they had heard of the capture of only 16 of the Germans, three of whom were wounded, but an official of the internment operations branch said "information is coming in slowly."

The new captures brought to eight the number caught near this wind-and-snow swept point between Schreiber and White River and an unofficial list of 19 in custody. Reports here said three others were killed when they fled on being challenged by armed searchers.

captured Larisa.
Besides Larisa, 40 miles south of Olympus, the Germans said they had fought their way through British defenses into Trikkala, west of Larisa and 45 miles south-west of the classic mountain home of the gods.

Volos, through which some of the British expeditionary forces entered Greece, is 30 miles south of Larisa, across coastal plains, and the pass of Thermopylae is just beyond the key road junction town of Lamio, 50 miles south of Larisa.

Near Mountain Barriers
At Lamia, Greece's mountain barriers rise again, guarding the narrowing approach to Athens between the Gulf of Corinth and the Aegean.

King George II of Greece, who stepped into the dual role of monarch and premier yesterday, formed a new cabinet with himself at its head and Admiral Alexander Skellariou as vice premier.

The cabinet leadership change was forced by the death of Premier Alexandros Koris, announced to have killed himself last Friday.

Across the Mediterranean, a British garrison still held out under bombing and tank attacks at the Libyan port of Tobruk and advance patrol fighting swirled around the Egyptian frontier town of Salum as the British said their forces were holding out to gain valuable time needed to bring up reinforcements.

In the air war of the west, the Germans said residential districts were bombed last night by some RAF forces which penetrated the western frontier of the reich and the British reported few casualties and little damage from scattered raids over England.

The United States and Canada linked their mobilization of resources closer in an agreement announced last night after a meeting of President Roosevelt and Canadian Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King at Hyde Park.

The agreement called for interchange of defense articles by the United States and Canada—with equipment to produce—for the dual each providing those it is best purpose of speeding up aid to Britain and of hastening western hemisphere defense preparations.

Six in Automobile Overcome by Fumes

Joliet, Ill.—(AP)—An inhalator squad revived six persons who were overcome by carbon monoxide fumes in an automobile while en route from Morris to Joliet. The victims, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Carnes of Morris, and four Joliet girls, were given treatment at a hospital and then released.

The inhalator squad was summoned after the Carnes' son, Guy, Jr., 13, went to a gasoline filling station for help. He said his father had pulled the car off the road after one of the girls fainted. Everyone but young Carnes then was overcome before they could open the doors.

Constance's romance with the dashing Gilbert, 35-year-old, Mexico-born son of a Spanish bull-fighter, began long before she divorced the Marquis Henry de la Falaise de la Coudraye last November. She long had been separated from the marquis but refused to divorce him while he was in the French army.

Roland completed a picture, "Angels with Broken Wings" late Saturday night. Yesterday morning he and Constance drove to Yuma, Ariz., and were married by the Rev. J. C. Cobb, retired Methodist minister.

Greece's New Premier Declares Nation Will Fight on to the End

Athens, Greece, April 21.—(AP)—Greece's new premier Emanuel Tsouderos, declared tonight that the Greeks would "fight to the end, until the Balkans are cleared of those who led the infamous campaign against us."

In a radio broadcast to the nation, he said: "You may rest assured that glory eventually will crown Greece. Greece will remain faithful to her commitments and she is grateful to her great ally, Britain, who came here on her own initiative to fight."

"Behind us we also have the assistance of the United States, from whose great humanitarian principles mankind will benefit. With such allies we may be assured that right and justice will prevail."

About Ten Billions In Contracts Still Unlet For Defenses

Washington, April 21.—(AP)—(The Special News Service)—About $10,000,000,000 in army and navy contracts are still to be awarded under the program already enacted by congress.

Defense officials, making a estimate today, said the sum does not include pay for the Army and Navy, nor proposed expenditures on the Panama Canal or river and harbor work. It includes, however, appropriations under the lease-lend act.

The enacted program amounts to $23,473,000,000.

The War Today

storms tear at men and equipment as though armed with millions of little knives.

With the desert fighting for them, the British probably feel that they have a reasonable period in which to bring up their reinforcements for a drive against the axis forces. However, time is on the wing and the Turks undoubtedly are under a great strain.

Hitler's diplomatic assault is in the hands of his envoy to Ankara, Franz von Papen. The ambassador has one of the shrewdest brains in Germany and is no novice in this type of work. It will be recalled that the United States asked to have him withdrawn as military attache at Washington in 1915, under grave suspicion of plotting against American neutrality.

Von Papen is reported, though without confirmation, to be in Berlin now trying to work out a scheme which will bring the Turks under German domination. If Hitler could get free passage of his troops through Turkey he would be sitting pretty. Short of that, he certainly wants to ensure Turkish neutrality.

WHAT UNCLE SAM MEANS TO ME

To what other country in the world beside America, could a penniless immigrant girl, sixteen years of age, come and find a home and the right of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, religious freedom, and the opportunity for self-improvement and development, as did by own grandmother fifty-five years ago? After these many years, a common expression of hers is this: Haven't we it good in America? I, too, as a girl of fourteen, give expression to these same sentiments.

Being an American citizen, by birth is a wonderful privilege and certainly gives one the opportunity for a full well-rounded life. I am thankful for my Christian home, and for my church where I may worship God according to the dictates of my heart. I am thankful for the free educational prerogatives, making it possible for one to educate himself in elementary, high school, and in many of the larger cities, junior college courses. I doubt if any other country in the world offers as much, free, to its youths. Music, which has an important part in our school curriculum these days, helps develop one's finer emotions, while the sports' activities are not only of benefit to our physical bodies, but they also help to develop our sense of fair play.

My country grants me the rights to a choice of work or a vocation that I may desire to follow regardless of what my parents' station in life has been. This has been proven so conclusively in the cases of our two Presidents, Washington and Lincoln, who came from the two extremes of social position.

Uncle Sam, to me, means a land of unbounded, natural resources; a land where almost every food necessary to our health is grown in abundance, and is available to practically everyone of us; a land where minerals needed for every industry are easily mined; and a land where oil, and gas abound.

Uncle Sam means a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whereby I will have the rights by my vote to choose the public officers who direct our nation's affairs, a privilege denied those living in dictator nations.

In conclusion, I feel led to say that we American-born citizens fail to evaluate as do the immigrants, the blessings of American citizenship.

Premier of Poland Predicts Victory

Chicago, April 21—(AP)—Describing the conflict abroad as a war "for Christian civilization, for freedom and justice and progress of humanity," Gen. Wladyslaw Sikorski, premier of the Polish government in exile, says he is "convinced deeply that victory will be ours."

Sikorski, who also is commander-in-chief of the Polish army in England, spoke to an estimated 70,000 persons of Polish birth or ancestry who welcomed him at a civic reception yesterday in Soldier Field.

Speaking in Polish, Sikorski asserted that a victory for Germany would mean that the "whole civilized world will lose," adding "that in the place of freedom will stand slavery, instead of justice, tyranny."

"As I believe in God Almighty, as I believe in Christian civilization, I am convinced deeply that victory will be ours. With the United States uniting its efforts with Great Britain and a powerful Anglo-Saxon national union beginning to form, I am convinced that in spite of the unfortunate military events in the Balkans, a final and full victory will be ours."

MORE JOBS FILLED

Chicago, April 21—(AP)—Jobs filled by the Illinois state employment service in March jumped approximately 70 per cent over those filled in March, 1940, the state labor department said today.

The March figure of 19,733 jobs also was a 20 per cent increase over February's 16,406. The March, 1940, count was 11,725.

Private Industry Tries to Provide Defense Housing

Special Efforts Under Way in Moline and Joliet Sectors

Chicago, April 21—(AP)—Private industry under government stimulation is working hard to provide sufficient housing, without over-building, in two Illinois primary defense production areas, Joliet and Moline.

It's a task requiring delicate economic balancing—the immediate need for dwelling units against the future possibility of houses standing idle, rotting away.

Nationally, some 140 of these communities were designated as defense areas on which Uncle Sam's agencies focussed their attention in regard to housing problems. The federal Home Loan Bank board initiated surveys.

Charles E. Palmer, defense housing coordinator, early this month called the presidents of the Federal Home Loan banks to a conference in Washington at which was launched a national drive for private, but financially and economically sound, production of defense housing.

A. R. Garner, president of the Federal Home Loan bank of Chicago, after his return from the Capital said that Joliet and Moline were the only Illinois areas designated officially thus far, although Rockford, locale of Camp Grant, might be so designated later.

Cooperating with Gardner in Joliet is J. Louis Fifer of the Joliet Federal Savings & Loan Association, and in Moline it's Earl Larson of the First Federal Savings & Loan Association. Their local committees include builders, financiers, contractors and business men.

FOR PRIVATE FINANCING

"The idea is to provide defense housing that can be safely financed by private enterprise," Gardner said. "The Home Loan banks are prepared to advance money to the extent of the local ability to carry it. But there must be preventive measures, too."

Finding out if the housing need is magnified, if all available dwelling units are being utilized and none ignored, avoiding construction of facilities that can not be absorbed locally after the emergency has passed.

The Joliet housing problem can be stated simply—13 miles south of the city a construction army of more than 10,000 is at work on the army's $55,000,000 twin Elwood and Kankakee ordnance plants which when completed will have an operating personnel of 8,000.

Fifer said he and his committee are now making a housing survey. Work will begin there soon on 150 government homes, costing $750,000, to be occupied by munitions plant operating personnel. Fifer said he believed that with these and sharply accelerated private residential construction there would be no need for additional federal housing projects.

Joliet building permits for new construction totalled $119,491 in March, compared with $35,893 in March, 1940. Eighteen new homes were started in March, none a year ago.

Fifer said the survey of 18 cities and villages in Will and Grundy counties within a 25-mile radius of Elwood included questionnaires to 31 lumber dealers, 20 of whom replying so far showed there were 89 new homes under construction and 59 old houses being remodeled into apartments or several-family dwellings.

In Moline, where the nearby Rock Island arsenal is employing some 8,000 and heading toward the World War peak of 15,000 or more, Larson said the "Moline plan" of providing adequate housing for defense and industrial workers "with a minimum of disturbance to the natural economy of the community" was making consistent progress.

A non-profit housing corporation was organized by the Moline Association of Commerce, financed by local industry, and is building and selling at cost a large number of homes, four rooms with expansion possibilities, costing about $4,000.

Zionist Leader Says War Will Not Destroy Spirit of Great People

St. Louis, April 21—(AP)—The Nazis "will not destroy the spirit of England, Greece and America," Dr. Chaim Weizmann of London, England, president of the World Zionist Organization, asserted in an address here last night.

Dr. Weizmann said the present conflict is a long war, "a civil war raging all over the world; a war of ideas, and those who preserve their spirit and faith will win." And while arms may destroy thousands of people and raze cities, he declared, "they will not destroy the spirit of England, Greece and America."

Dr. Weizmann, chemistry adviser to the ministry of supplies in England, was instrumental in the development of Palestine and a Jewish homeland.

Lecture on Christian Science Its Practical Availability

By LOUISE KNIGHT WHEATLEY COOK

Louise Knight Wheatley Cook, C. S. B., of Kansas City, Mo., a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, is Boston, Mass. gave an exceptional lecture on "Christian Science, Its Practical Availability," to a large audience, which included many from out of town, at the Loveland Community House Sunday afternoon. The lecture was under the auspices of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Dixon.

The speaker said in part:

If anyone is under the impression that Christian Science is difficult, hard to understand, may I disabuse his mind of that at the very outset? Christian Science does deal with the most stupendous facts of existence: yet these facts may be set forth with simplicity. Jesus, the Christ, the greatest teacher the world has ever known, did this. Those who followed him came in many cases from the humbler walks of life, were unlettered and unlearned, and yet so well did they assimilate the tremendous truths he taught that they continued to put them into practice long after he had left them.

Nearly twenty centuries went by, and then one who had long been an earnest searcher for Truth, a New England woman, Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, while reading in her Bible of the healing of the man taken with the palsy, was herself healed of a physical difficulty said to be incurable. With this healing came the conviction that all the mighty works of Jesus were founded not upon his human personality, but were based upon an ever-operative, ever-available, and exact science. For three years she devoted herself to the discovery of this rule, and eventually placed the results of her investigations in her book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." And then a sleeping world woke up.

The field which Christian Science opens before us is inconceivably vast. Human conjecture has, as yet, glimpsed but a small part of the change which it is destined to make in a world sadly in need of some radical readjustment. And Christian Science is radical. It upsets human theories, breaks down pretense and sham, shatters conclusions accepted unthinkingly but never investigated, and carries thought steadily and surely from provable premise to provable conclusion. Its basis rests upon the Scriptural authority that since man was made in the image and likeness of God, and since God is Spirit, man is, must be spiritual.

The cause of every ill "that flesh is heir to" lies rooted in the almost universal belief that man is material, instead of spiritual. Upon this one erroneous premise mortal mind rests its false conclusions, and when we destroy this, it has nothing left. Annuity it with the counterpart that man is spiritual, he is not material. Mrs. Eddy says (Science and Health, p. 369), "In proportion as matter loses to human sense all entity as man, in that proportion does man become its master." Arise from the false consciousness which would persuade you to say about yourself: I am sick, I am poor, I am alone, I am afraid, I am unhappy, I am discouraged. I am wearying for something which I cannot have. I am tired, I am cross, I am a failure, I am not going to try any more.

Instead of dishonoring God, by maintaining that a perfect creator made an imperfect creation, and that this creation is a miserable failure, doing nothing right, and everything wrong, why not instantly assert the real man's eternal atonement with Spirit, and know that he is all that is lovely and good and true, for he lives, moves, and has his being in God? As Truth's reflection, man cannot know a single one of those infamous lies, for Truth surely knows them not! If Truth knew them, they would be true. If they were true, they would be real. If they were real, they would be eternal. If they were eternal, they would be incapable of change, and man would be like that forever.

Perhaps an important decision is to be made, and we doubt our ability to make it. We are still vacillating, uncertain, halting between two opinions. What then? Is Christian Science practically available to help us in this? Will an understanding of our relationship to God free us from this uncertainty? It certainly will, and it already has, in innumerable instances. Make your strong declarations of truth. Nothing is hidden to the Mind which already knows all, hence it is not hidden to Mind's reflection, man. The right answer is at hand, just waiting. It is bound to come. It cannot help coming, any more than the answer to a problem in mathematics can help "coming" when one applies the rule. Continue your work of knowing that your affairs are not in the hands of persons, but in the care of God. The requests of personality and the demands of Principle may sometimes seem to conflict, but if they do, there is but one course open to Christian Scientist. No family entanglement, nor claim of human relationship can complicate a situation already cared for by divine wisdom. Neither so-called enemies nor so-called friends can bias your conclusion. No mesmeric and smothering mist of conflicting opinions can confuse any issue in regard to which you need to make a decision; and that decision once made, under divine guidance, there is no censure, criticism, or condemnation to reverse it, or to dissuade you of its rightness, or to rob you of your joy about it.

What is known as a Christian Science treatment is really prayer directed in some particular, specific direction, and for the purpose of healing. It includes those three essentials just given, "absolute faith," "spiritual understanding," and "unselfed love." It has for its bases and foundation the fact of man's unity with the one source of all good, and his consequent immunity from anything which would suggest the absence of this unity, and the annulment of his spiritual status as a child of God. While it is true that some persons may seem to respond to these prayers, or "treatments," more quickly than do some others, there is no reason for concluding that the healing is not for all. Some of us may seem to have traveled farther in devious and dangerous paths than have some others, and so they come to Christian Science bringing with them more of the dust of the journey to be removed. But a Christian Science practitioner does not mind that. His business is to see through that dust of error, to see through it, and beyond it, in order to discern the radiant loveliness and perfection of the real man, whose true being was never touched by any of these phases of nothingness. And of course he has to do this mentally while the dust is still there. A man who had been healed of habitual and excessive drinking by Christian Science once remarked afterwards: "The practitioners are certainly strange people! She never seemed to mind the ugly things I said. And I was surely mean. I see that now. But the worse I acted, the kinder she used to get." Of course, the farther one seems to be from the kingdom of heaven, the more he needs kindness.

Once in the Far East, some travelers were sitting on the veranda of a small hotel, finding comfortable surcease from the heat of the tropical sun. The town was situated at the edge of a desert, and many persons and caravans passed that way. Finally a little band of native men came by who had just finished their trip through the desert, and were walking slowly and dwearily, with the marks of the journey thick upon them. One in advance of the others, evidently their leader, went on with his head up, and his eyes straight ahead; but he did look particularly rough and unkempt and travel-stained. Upon seeing him, one of the young ladies on the veranda whispered to her friend, "What a horrible looking man!" But the friend replied: "Judge him not by his dress. He has traveled far."

Many coming to Christian Science for relief have "traveled far." Those looking on do not always know how far. They do not know how endless may have seemed that journey through the desert of human illusions, nor how hot were the sands! The girl on the comfortable veranda had not the slightest conception of what the desert meant. She saw only its results. Perhaps had she been called upon to endure but a small portion of the hardships which fell to their lot, she might never have come through at all! Let no one look with condemnation and repulsion at another who is laboring under the delusion of some ugly, false belief. Let us rather rejoice to remember that no matter how long that journey may have been, or how far from the Father's house he may have gone, one can always come back quickly, if he really wishes to come.

The success of Christian Science when applied to cases of financial difficulty is well known—so well known, in fact, that it may not be amiss to mention here that our pure and holy religion must never be regarded as a sort of Prosperity System. Once in a while someone seems to think that he can appeal to it to "put through" a certain deal, to get a certain position, to sell a piece of real estate or to bring in an oil well. He usually has it all figured out beforehand in his own mind as to just what particular thing should happen, and then he thinks if he asks God to make it happen, that he is demonstrating Christian Science.

I want to tell you a true story. A little boy went to a Christian Science practitioner to recover a lost bicycle. He was a telegraph messenger, and had to have a bicycle in order to hold his position. "Will you get it back for me?" he anxiously asked the practitioner, and the reply was, "I shall be so happy to work for you." "But will God give it back to me?" persisted the boy. Still the answer came, "I shall be happy to work for you." And then she told him more about God, and how He loves all His children, and wants them to be happy, and to have everything they need, and how they can never lack anything which it is right for them to have. Well, he did not get back his bicycle. To use the child's language, "God did not give it back." But He gave something very much better, because the boy now had to look for some other kind of work, and this other work turned out to be so much more pleasant and lucrative than the old position that he finally came to rejoice that he had lost the thing which was holding back his progress.

One must not, of course, infer that one has to lose something in order to progress. That is not God's way. The little boy did not necessarily have to lose his bicycle, but since he had already lost it, it was for him to prove—as do we all, sooner or later, in one way or another—that, to quote from Mrs. Eddy (Miscellaneous Writings, p. 389), "loss is gain." In these troublous times it often happens that the human activity through which our needs have long been supplied has ceased to function. The world seems to have no further need to buy what we have to sell, or to use what we are making. What then? It only means that if one kind of work come to an end, another kind of work is just beginning, when one lifts his thought above matter, with its limitations to seek first the kingdom. Christian Science does not invariably bring back our bicycles, but, if not, it brings us something better and more satisfying. And remember this, if the way through which divine Love supplies our needs is not sometimes changed—just changed—we might forget that good is infinite.

Those who have already found in Christian Science that peace of mind and body which the world can never give nor take away are proving that its teachings are as available today as they were centuries ago, when Jesus walked the Galilean shore, and taught them to those whose hearts burned within them as they listened. They are for any, and for all. "Beyond the frail premises of human beliefs, above the loosening grasp of creeds, the demonstration of Christian Mind-healing stands a revealed and practical Science. It is imperious throughout all ages as Christ's revelation of Truth, of Life, and of Love, which remains inviolate for every man to understand and to practise" (Science and Health, p. 98).

FIVE MILLION BIBLES
For many years the Gideon Bible in hotel rooms has been a distinctive American institution. In no other country, so far as we know, has an organization undertaken such a task, to make certain that every traveler who goes to his hotel room in a strange city shall find there the Book of Books.

Now the Gideons are undertaking to see to it that every soldier and sailor shall have the same privilege. They plan to distribute 5,000,000 Bibles to soldiers and sailors during the next four years.

Who shall say that this is the last part of America's armament?

Canada and States to Coordinate All Defense Projects

Washington, April 21—(AP)—Speedy mobilization of North America's resources, calling for the interchange of defense articles by the United States and Canada, has been agreed upon by President Roosevelt and Canadian Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King.

Designed for the dual purpose of hastening aid to Great Britain and other democracies and for defense of this hemisphere, the agreement was announced last night in a joint statement after a seven-hour conference between Roosevelt and the Canadian leader at the President's Hyde Park home. Both then left for their respective posts in Washington and Ottawa.

"It was agreed upon as a general principle," the statement said, "that in mobilizing the resources of this continent each country should provide the other with the defense article which it is best able to produce, and above all, produce quickly, and that production programs should be coordinated to this end."

During the next year, the statement added, it was hoped Canada could supply the United States with $200,000,000 to $300,000,000 worth of defense articles "urgently required by the United States". Certain kinds of munitions, strategic materials, aluminum and ships" were mentioned in this respect.

In that period, the statement said, Canadian purchases would be even greater than in the past. Pending ironing out of technical and financial details, it was understood between the statesmen that Canada would receive payment for the supplies so as to defray part of this cost of its defense purchases in this country."
